WELCOME TO WINNIPEG !

Winnipeg surprises. Rising above the prairie, it's a metropolis where you least expect it. Cultured, confident and captivating, it's more than just a pit stop on the Trans-Canada haul, but a destination in its own right, with world-class museums and a wonderfully diverse dining scene. Wander its historic neighborhoods and lap up a vibe that enjoys being the butt of a Simpsons joke ('That's it! Back to Winnipeg!') and revels in one of the world's best fringe theater festivals..

Travelling west of the perimeter, through the Manitoba countryside, recalls the bygone era of country gentry. There you happen upon the rambling converted country estate that is The Gates on Roblin - a pastoral world of expansive grounds, gambrel roofs and generous porches.

The historical colonial-style building, nearing a century old, has been at the forefront of haute prairie cuisine operating as The Gates since 2006.

You will definitely not want to miss this evening of dinner, music, dancing and the Residents Challenge Mug competition!
